

January 21, 2025(Reiwa 7)

The 43rd Award and Grant Presentation Ceremony held at Mitsubishi Club, in Marunouchi Tokyo

View from Mitsubishi Club

Masuda Katsuhiko, President of Sakurada-kai congratulates the awards and grants recipients

Yamaguchi Jiro (Professor, Hosei University) receives Gold Medal for the Sakurada-kai Special Achievement Award

The award-winning book titled 'Odessey towards Democracy'

Publisher: Iwanami Shoten

Nishikawa Shinichi (Professor, Meiji University) receives the Silver Medal for the Sakurada-kai Incentive Award.

The award-winning book titled 'The life of Horiki Tsunesuke, an Army Judge Advocate'
 Publisher: Fubaisha

Tago Atsushi (Professor, Waseda University) receives the Silver Medal for Incentive Award

The award-winning book titled 'International Relations'
 Publisher: Keiso Shobo

<Joint Political Research Grant presentation>

Fukuda Madoka (Professor, Hosei University) receives the certificate as a team leader. Research theme: The ‘One China’ regime and Japan-China /Japan-Taiwan relations

The team leader Inatsugu Hiroaki (Professor, Waseda University) receives the certificate of the grant. Research theme: Research on the construction of a resilient administrative organization system

<Presentation of Political Research Grants>

Uekami Takayoshi (Professor, Gakushuin University)

'Local assembly elections in declined population and aging society'

Kojima Kazuko (Professor, Keio Gijuku University)

'China's state'-Society Relations in the process of building a security system: the CCP's perspectives on the Soviet KGB'

Inoue Masaya (Professor, Keio Gijuku University)

'A biographical study of Nobusuke Kishi from the perspective of trans-war history'

Takuma Kayo (Professor, Keio Gijuku University)

‘Health security in Asia, multilayered global health
governance’

Noguchi Masahiro (Professor, Seikei University)

‘Capitalism, climate change, and the Weberian perspective on ecology’

Yamazaki Nozomu (Professor, Chuo University)

‘In search of democracy in the age of postcolonialism’

Ishikawa Noriyuki (Professor, Nihon University)
'A study of Ioki Ryoza's political activities and opinion'

Kodama Hiroaki (Professor, Nihon University)
'Study of local governors'

Sugita Atsushi (Professor, Hosei University)
'Redefining the concept of political power'

Hirose Katsuya (Professor, Hosei University)

‘Development of local assembly reform in Japan’

Horikane Yumi (Professor, Meiji University)

‘The Japanese and Korean Official Development Assistance: Are there the East Asian way of development assistance?’

Araki Junko (Associate Professor, Meiji University)

“Research on the social foundations supporting ‘meaningful work’ - with a focus on Swedish social policy”

Kohno Masaru (Professor, Waseda University)

‘How did COVID-19 politically affected the governing Parties?:The case of Japan’s national elections. ‘

Nakamura Hidetoshi (Professor, Waseda University)

‘The G7 and Europe-Japan relations in transforming world order: Diplomatic practices inside and outside of a security community’

Yamamoto Teppei (Professor, Waseda University)

“Development and application of new experimental designs for identifying ‘Causal Mechanism’ behind political behavior”

Nakamura Akira, Chairperson of the Selection Committee (Professor Emeritus, Meiji University) gives a general review.

Yamaguchi Jiro (Professor, Hosei University) gives an Acknowledgement speech

Miyamoto Taro (Professor, Chuo University) gives a lecture on 'Thoughts on the politics of increasing Take Home Income'

Awardees and recipients with smiling faces

All participants of the day

Political research grants presentation ceremony held later at Sakurada-kai office on January 30

Sakagushi Isao (Professor, Gaku-shuin University)

'The new development of Japan's biodiversity diplomacy'

Imai Takako (Professor, Seikei University)

'Comparative study of opposition parties in today's democracy - UK and Sweden'

Iguchi Satoshi (Associate Professor, Chuo University)

'Nuclear regulation and scientific cultures of non-knowledge after the Fukushima nuclear accident'

Everyone having a friendly conversation at the the reception

